"Success breeds success," says Upland Coach R. Loney

Runners hit road to success

By Don Ham

Two or three times a season, Coach Robert Loney's varsity, junior varsity and freshman-sophomore cross country teams run an arduous 12 mile, up-hill jaunt from the high school to Baldy Village. Most make it all the way.

This past summer, freshman-sophomore team standout Roger Innes ran more than 1,000 miles in preparation for fall competition. He's not the only cross country athlete at the high school to perform this feat.

Once a week, the cross country teams run continuously for 45 minutes, slow and fast, short distances of 100 and 220 yards and longer distances of up to 1,000 meters.

If you're impressed with the training program, you'll be more impressed with the championships the varsity teams, under the direction of Loney, have brought home during the last eight years.

In 1966, the first year Loney took over coaching of the cross country teams, the varsity placed third in the San Antonio League, the lowest they have placed since.

In each of the next seven years, the varsity qualified for the CIF (California Interscholastic Federation), Southern Section finals competition. The Southern section is made up of more than 400 Southern California high school teams.

The Upland Varsity Cross Country team placed last in CIF in 1967, when they were co-champions of the SAL, and first placed in 1968. They placed second in 1969, sixth in 1970, first in 1971 and 1972 and third last year.

In a recent interview at the school, Loney gave several reasons why his teams have been so successful. These include having a good training program, the help of national class runner Ray Hughes, who served as Loney's assistant for several years; effective student team leaders; good cross country programs at the two Upland junior high schools and student runners who are "willing to pay the price" of hard work to win.

One or two days each week, Loney's training program emphasizes the "long run," where students begin a seven mile or more run at a slow "jogging" pace and increase their speed at specified intervals. The run is an "out" race at the end.

One day each week, the three cross country teams work on the "pace workout." They run one quarter mile races repeatedly, from 10 to 20 times in the two-hour practice period. The objective of the practice, according to Loney, is to teach each runner how to pace himself during the weekly competitive two mile races against other schools.

"To get optimum performance, we want them to go at a steady pace and be completely exhausted at the end," he said.

Another essential of Loney's physical training program is the "Igloo," continuous running for as long as 45 minutes, featuring fast and slow running for 220 yards to 1,000 meters. The exercise builds stamina.

National runner Ray Hughes not only helped Loney build a successful program, but by pacing Upland varsity runners himself in 1969, helped the team get to the top of the national ratings in "National Postal Competition."

Loney works a lot with his student team leaders. If they don't handle their responsibilities well, he said, the team doesn't do well in competition.

Other important factors in the school's good runners are the "two very fine" cross country programs at Upland's two junior high schools, Loney said. Many of his runners decided to go out for the sport at the high school because they did well in competition at the junior high's, he said.

An important reason for the program's success is hard work on the part of the students, Loney said.

"As long as we get kids who are willing to pay the price, we're all right," he said, noting that for a runner to be successful, he must believe in the team, himself, the coach and the program.

Several students practice throughout the summer when the cross country program is inactive. A few take "long, easy" runs each morning before school. On weekends, some runners "get together and run long together."

"We don't work as hard as the average good team, but we work a lot on building confidence in what we do," he said. "We've probably had 200 athletes go through the program and I bring up illustrations about all of them to show how they've done."

"I approach it (training) from 70 angles for the 70 kids in the program. I try to treat every kid as an individual and try to figure out individually what will make them perform better."

When a runner does poorly in a meet, Loney tries to forget it. When he does well, Loney said he "celebrates" and congratulates the runner for doing a good job.

"It's my personal opinion that very few of your athletes will ever live up to their potential. I've had three athletes who I feel went beyond their physical abilities. This leads me to believe that others can do it."

Loney feels that his runners can achieve success if they believe in the program and that success is possible. "Success breeds success," he said. "They learn from each other."

The Upland High School Varsity, Junior Varsity and Freshman-Sophomore Cross Country team will compete against Montclair High School teams today at 3:15 p.m. on the Upland High School track.

On Thursday, Oct. 24 at 3:15 p.m., the teams will compete against Garey High School at Garey.

VARSITY WINNER — Upland High School Varsity Cross Country standout Mark Sorenson runs down the roped-off finish line, placing first in a recent meet against Claremont High School, won by Claremont. Runners like Sorenson have helped Upland qualify for CIF competition the last seven years.

High blood pressure testing center opens

High blood pressure is a disorder that can trigger heart attacks and strokes. The important thing to remember is that high blood pressure can be controlled and persons found to have this condition when tested will be referred for medical evaluation. It has been estimated that 23 million Americans have high blood pressure and most don't know it!

The new center offers free testing daily, Monday, through Friday, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m.

The San Bernardino County Community Services Department has announced the opening of a new free high blood pressure testing center in Cucamonga at 10155 24th Street. The project is funded by the California Regional Medical Program.

Jewel Thompson, coordinator of the project, states, "The test takes only a few minutes of a person's time and this time is well spent since early detection of high blood pressure may save a life."

KIWANIAN OF THE YEAR — Randy Bond, right, past president of the Upland Noon Kiwanis Club, is presented a plaque naming him "Kiwanian of the Year" by fellow member Don Deal. Bond is manager of the Upland Office of the Southern California Edison Company and past president of the Upland Chamber of Commerce. He has been active in the Kiwanis Club for the past five years.

Scouting director honored

The October retirement of Margaret Flint, camping services director for Spanish Trails Girl Scout Council, was the occasion for a reception held at Griswold's in Claremont recently.

Several hundred friends and associates gathered to wish Mrs. Flint a fond farewell in a dining room provided through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Alton J. Sanford. Handstitched "blocks" depicting personal reminiscences were among gifts presented to Margaret during the event. The blocks will be quilted for a lasting remembrance of her years in Girl Scouting.

Margaret began her adult association in Scouting as a leader for her daughter's troop in Oakland in the 1940's. The next decade found Mrs. Flint serving troops in Juneau, Alaska, as a leader and camp committee chairman. Missoula, Mont., was her next home, and a lack of Girl Scout troops there did not deter Margaret's interest in camping experiences for girls. She transferred her energies to working with Campfire Girls as a camp committee member.

Mrs. Flint was reunited with Scouting in September, 1957 when she joined the staff of the East San Gabriel Valley Council as one of only two field directors. She directed three council camps during the ensuing four years. Her duties as Camping Services Director for Spanish Trails began in 1968 and she continued in this capacity until her retirement.

Future plans for Mrs. Flint include a brief visit with her daughter, in Montana, this fall. Margaret plans to spend some time with friends and catching up on many activities which her full time position in the council deterred her from doing in past years. Warm wishes for a rich full life ahead have been extended to Margaret Flint from her many friends and co-workers at Spanish Trails.

Six to launch world journey

It will be goodbye Cucamonga and hello Patagonia, Madagascar, Australia and Easter Island for six West End residents who on Saturday will begin a 22-month around-the-world sailing voyage.

Don and Reanne Douglass, their sons Jeff, 18; Mike, 17 and Sean, 15, will be joined by a family friend Carl Kowalski, 16, on their 42-foot ketch-rigged sailboat which will depart San Pedro Saturday.

The journey will circle the Southern Hemisphere, including passage around the Cape of Good Hope and Cape Horn.

The sailboat, Le Dauphin Amical, will carry extra safety equipment, along with a tape deck, skin-diving equipment, amateur radio, musical instruments and many books. But it definitely won't be a luxury cruise. The craft is not equipped with hot water or refrigeration — and television reception won't be very clear near Cape Hope.

Why do it? Why spend 22 months on the high seas, often being tossed about in rough weather?

Cucamonga resident Douglass replied, "Human beings are different because they do things for love and for fun."

As for the risks, he added the trip will involve less danger than a Fourth of July auto drive from Cucamonga to San Francisco.

Douglass is the president of Wilderness Group, Inc., a Claremont backpack manufacturing and backpack equipment retail firm which he co-founded five years ago.

The family's regular schedule of outdoor activities, they feel, make them conditioned for the voyage.

Mrs. Douglass is on sabbatical leave from her French teaching post at Montclair High School.

Car bought by Hitler to be shown

Adolf Hitler once promised his people the Third Reich would last a thousand years.

It lasted only 12 years leaving the deliberate murder of six million Jews and five million French, Poles, Czechs, Dutch, Russians, and other Europeans.

In an effort to remind the world of the wanton destruction accomplished by Hitler, a grandmother nine times over has been able to obtain the personal car of the Fuhrer's mistress, Eva Braun, and display the vehicle for everyone to see.

The 1938 Mercedes-Benz will be on display at Montclair Plaza beginning Monday and continuing thru Sunday, Oct. 20. Mrs. Hilda Onafrey, a widow, was able to obtain the car and use it to display after an American journalist found it in the barn of Eva Braun's chauffeur, a former storm trooper, in Austria, in 1965.

The journalist actually went to interview the widow of the chauffeur, who had just died. He found out about the car during the conversation. The unidentified newsman learned that the car was driven to the family farm of the chauffeur at the time allied troops were organizing the blockade of Berlin.

The newsman bought the car from the chauffeur's widow with the understanding he would remove the car from the country without getting her involved. He arranged to have the car shipped as farm machinery.

Mrs. Onafrey became owner of the car through negotiations with the newsman. She had the car painted gold. The 10 gauge steel hand crafted body was made in Zurich, Switzerland, and weighs 7500 pounds.

Mrs. Onafrey has accomplished many things by purchasing the car. First and foremost, she has been able to raise approximately $45,000 a year for charities benefitting children and adults.

The first $1,000 of donation money at Montclair Plaza will go to the Crippled Children's Society's Pomona Regional Center. Everyone can view the car, donations are voluntary.

Event to benefit Girls' State fund

The Girls' State program sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, Ontario Unit 112, will benefit from a "Luncheon is Served" project to be held at noon Thursday at the American Legion Clubhouse, 310 W. Emporia St., Ontario.

Mrs. Miles Phillips is in charge of arrangements for the luncheon and is chairman of the Girls' State program for the unit. Girls' State is a program in

Chairman of this year's "Patroness Tea," Mrs. D.A. Dona, left, chats during the 19th annual event with Mrs. Dick Vermier, a patroness. More than 150 patronesses, life, sustaining, Las Tias and active members attended the tea held in Upland last week.

FUN, EXCITEMENT, REFRESHMENTS

Join the fun. Tour our beautiful new office and meet our friendly people. We've got free helium-filled balloons to give the kids a lift. A pretty girl in a Turn-of-the-Century costume will give you a free bag of hot popcorn from an antique popcorn wagon and then you can munch your way through nostalgia as you browse around our antique car display. If you're thirsty after all that, there's all the free lemonade you can drink. See the "Goldenrod" (holder of the Wheel Driven World Land Speed record), formula 5000 cars, racing motorcycles, and much more.

MEET WORLD FAMOUS DRIVER SAM POSEY

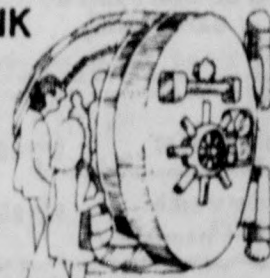

If you're a racing buff, you can talk shop with famous speedway and road racer Sam Posey. He'll be there with his Formula 5000 car from 12-3 p.m. to give you a free personalized, autographed photo.

PRIZES

After all that excitement come over to the main lobby and try your luck at the First National Bank Treasure Chest (you must be at least 18 years old). You may hold one of the lucky keys that unlocks the Treasure Chest and entitles you to a fabulous free gift such as 50 gallons of gas, blenders, tape recorders, tires, savings bonds, electric knives, cameras, portable radios, and many, many more.

TOUR THE BANK

Take a look at our modern, comfortable facilities. See how much nicer it is to transact your business in a pleasant and relaxing atmosphere. And while you're helping us celebrate, why not open an account and become a customer of the oldest bank in San Bernardino and Riverside counties (since 1887!). Join the five generations of satisfied local people who have allowed us to serve them.

Tax rate to drop in WUSD

Residents of the Walnut School District received some good news last week on taxes. George Hartnett, the district's assistant superintendent for business, told the school board that the total tax rate for 1974-75 will drop by about 15 cents from earlier predictions.

County officials formally set the rate at $4.8918 per $100 assessed valuation, 15 cents less than the district estimated when a final $6.8 million budget was adopted in August.

Hartnett had figured the rate at $5.0435 in his final budget.

Supt. David Brown did not explain the reason for the difference from the estimate to the final rate but he did say the county officials sets the tax.

In other action, the school board tabled approval of construction of a swimming pool at Walnut High School, because cost estimates have escalated.

Trustees were told by architect Bill Davis that the pool's total cost would be $88,000 higher than the previous estimate of $200,000.

Part of the reason, Brown said, is the need to construct new restrooms near the pool. Present restrooms at the high school are not conveniently located, he added.

Firemen put out two fires

Los Angeles County firemen put out two fires in Walnut last weekend — one in a towing truck garage and another in a Southern Pacific boxcar.

Both fires caused considerable damage. The garage fire is under investigation by the sheriff's arson detail but firemen believe the boxcar fire was accidental.

Fire officials said the boxcar fire apparently started because overheated brakes ignited the wooden floor of the car and new stoves that were in the car enroute from Tennessee to Los Angeles.

Another fire was discovered at a storage and repair garage for towing trucks at 19042 San Jose Ave.

Firemen found the front door of the garage open when they arrived to put out the fire. The damage was confined to a pickup truck and a charred roof of the building. The fire is believed to have started in the truck.

The other 19 units in the building were not damaged by the fire.

Montclair building slows up

Montclair did just about one-third the building business this September as they did last September.

Valuation totaling $42,543 was recorded this year while almost three times that, $122,220 was recorded last year for the month of September.

Building for the entire year is down to about one-fifth of last year's activity. This year's total valuation to date is $1,384,644 while last year through September $5,140,876.54 was recorded through September. The number of permits issued has not shown such a drastic decrease however.

The number of permits issued has not shown such a drastic decrease however. Through September of 1973, there were 929 permits issued. Through September of this year there were 787 permits issued.

But the value placed on those permits has dwindled.

In September of this year, 81 permits were issued, including 58 for residential additions and alterations, three for mobile homes, two for garages and carports and 12 for additions and alterations to non-residential structures.

Montclair students

Montclair High School announced two senior students were recently commended for high performance on the 1973 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude and National Merit Scholarship Qualifying tests.

Lisa Haage and Diane Herbert are among the upper 2 per cent of students expected to graduate in 1975, the merit scholarship organization announced.

Scouts receive awards

Five members of Cub Scout Pack 330, Mt. Baldy Council, Boy Scouts of America, have received awards as a result of their scout work.

During a recent Pack meeting at Serrano Junior High School, Montclair, the following awards were presented: Donald Desmore, recruiting badge; David Meisner, craftsman and arrow of light; William Penrose, aquanaut and naturalist; Kelly Pule and Chris Meisner, Bobcat badges.

David was also inducted into Boy Scout Troop 313 and William was inducted into Boy Scout Troop 326.

The Navajo Lodge Indian Dance team provided entertainment following the awards ceremony.

State scholarships

High school seniors in the Chaffey High School District who will need financial assistance to attend college next fall should plan to submit an application for a state scholarship.

The California Scholarship and Loan Commission will award 13,485 new state scholarships in March 1975 for use in 1975-76; approximately 80% of the new scholarships will be available to high school seniors.

State scholarships may be used at any four-year or two-year college which is accredited or is a candidate for accreditation by the Western

Association of Schools and Colleges. The awards range from $500 to $2,500 at the independent colleges, $300 to $600 at the University of California, and are in the amount of fees charged to students at the California State University and Colleges (approximately $182). Since the program is limited to tuition and fees, no payments are made for students who attend community colleges until they complete their education at the community college and transfer to a four-year college. Students planning to attend a community college during the 1975-76 academic year may have their scholarships held in reserve for them until such time as they attend a four-year college.

Applications are available in the counseling office of every California high school. Those planning to apply must complete the Scholastic

Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board, no later than Dec. 7, file a 1975-76 Parents' Confidential Statement with the College Scholarship Service by midnight, Dec. 13, and file an application with the State Scholarship and Loan Commission by midnight, Nov. 22.

Group plans New speed limit border trip creates crusader

Mrs. Eugenia Brubaker of La Verne has made the 35-mile-per-hour speed limit a personal campaign.

She has bought and distributed 250 bumper stickers to her friend and acquaintances calling on them to "Stay Alive with '35'."

She is ordering additional stickers for the Pomona YWCA, which has agreed to join her campaign, and the bumper stickers are now on sale there for $1 apiece.

"Last summer as I was riding the freeways I noticed how much more pleasant it was to observe the lower speed limit," she explained. "People were not cutting in and out, they all seemed to be so much more friendly. So, after the fuel crisis passed, I thought, why not hold the speed limit down?" She cited reports showing that between January and September traffic fatalities were down 6,000 across the nation.

"I believe people are following the lower speed limit more than they have been given credit for," she maintained. "Some may need reminders, others may require more time to get used to it. But I think people would prefer driving under 35."

She is hopeful that she can interest other organizations in her campaign. Groups which would like to purchase the black and yellow stickers are asked to telephone her at 593-2402.

Weekly church news

Country bazaar to be held

An old-fashioned "Country Store Bazaar" is planned by the United Methodist Women of the La Verne Methodist Church, 3205 D St., on Saturday from 10 a.m. until 7:30 p.m.

Homemade baked goods, jams and jellies, aprons, stuffed animals, garden items and plants, quilts, cards and stationery and an assortment of Christmas decorations and gift items will be available. Members have spent many hours creating the variety of items for sale.

"Grandma's stew dinner" will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. Donation is $2.50 for adults and $1 for children under 12.

Counter chairmen for the event include Mrs. Neal Mouser and Mrs. Harvey Case, aprons; Miss Hazel Snoke, Christmas items; Mrs. Floyd Slagle, plant and garden items; Mrs. Glen Hall, quilts; Mrs. James Bower, cards and stationery; Mrs. Jack Flood, snack bar and baked goods; Mrs. Tom Taylor, decorations and arrangements. Mrs. Robert Bitner is general chairman and Mrs. Price Glasgow is in charge of dinner arrangements.

The public is invited.

Volunteers are calling on older citizens

Five churches in the area are co-operating in a program to call on older persons in convalescent homes, titled, "The Tuesday Ministry."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, parishoners at St. Marks Episcopal Church, co-ordinate the program. Following the visits, from 3:30 to 5 p.m., the volunteers meet with the Andersons to discuss the patients' reactions and their needs.

Volunteers of any age, including young children accompanied by adults, are welcome to share in reaching out with love and friendship to the convalescent home residents.

Parishoners from St. George's Catholic Church, the First Presbyterian Church of Upland, Grace Brethren of Montclair, St. Mark's Episcopal and the First Baptist of Ontario are involved.

Convalescent homes committed to the program are Bella Vista, Shea California Villa, Plott Nursing Home and Alta Loma Manor.

Anyone interested in reaching out to the older citizen is welcome to participate. Call the Andersons at 987-4566.

Special film offered at Baptist Church

The young married Sunday school class of the First Baptist Church of Montclair, 5150 Palo Verde St., will present the film "Sound of the Trumpet" on Friday evening, Oct. 18 at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will follow in the fellowship hall.

The film is about Aden Cosmol, popular newscaster and producer of provocative television documentaries. He came into the editing room one day and found his crew examining some unusual footage. They had photographed a contemporary youth music group singing, "Maranatha! Maranatha! The Lord is Coming Back!"

Aden found the situation

initially amusing and decided to do a television spoof on wild-eyed radicals who believe prophecy.

But then he met John Truesdale, an influential broker previously interviewed on one of Aden's telecasts. Subsequent to the interview, Truesdale had become a Christian and an avid student of the Bible. To the TV star's amazement, Truesdale also looked with anticipation to God's intervention in human history through the second coming of His Son.

Intrigued, Aden Cosmol dispatched a photographic crew to tour the United States, interviewing many people.

The result is a penetrating analysis of today's world, and the discovery that God does care about man's future and present.

John Truesdale invited Aden Cosmol to join him on a trip to Israel, and here the film concludes, but not in the usual prophetic film manner. For, through Truesdale believes Christ's return could be near, what is revealed is that Christ came initially to live a sinless life, to die a substitutionary death, and to arise bodily from the grave as eternal proof of God's power to cancel the guilt of sin and cleanse the human heart.

The public is invited to attend.

'Christmas Carousel' preyle bazaar set "Christmas Carousel" is the theme for the preyle bazaar sponsored by San Dimas United Methodist Women on Saturday, Oct. 26. Mrs. Muriel Moore, president, said, "An unusually wide array of handmade Christmas gifts will be available for sale when the doors open at 2 p.m."

Booths and chairpersons will include "Grandmother's Bake Shop," Mrs. Robert Hager; "Green Thumb Corner," Miss Pearl Way; "Aprons To Quilts," Mrs. Lillian Mills; "White Elephants," Mrs. Harry Swank; "Boutique Shoppee," Mrs. Gene Sanders. Additional items for sale are scenic placemats with scripture passages, and a professionally printed cook book made up of recipes submitted by United Methodist Women.

The festive occasion will be highlighted by a dinner prepared and served by the women of the church, 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. Mrs. Ira D. Morgan, dinner chairperson, said, "The public is invited to the dinner as well as to shop at the bazaar." Tickets are $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for children under 12.

For ticket reservations, Phone Mrs. Hollis Joles, 599-1681. San Dimas United Methodist Church is located at 114 West Second St.

PRE-YULE BAZAAR — Anticipating the United Methodist Women's Bazaar on Oct. 26 are Dr. and Mrs. Don Toppenberg, Chris, Virginia and Dr. Ed Burn.

Christian youth day planned in Riverside

"Jesus, Day by Day" is the theme for the first annual Youth Day being held Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the University of California, Riverside.

The day is sponsored by the Center for Christian Development, Youth Activities, and the Newman Apostolate of the Diocese of San Diego. Christians living in the Riverside-San Bernardino counties are invited to take part in the day's events and workshops relating to the Christian Ministry.

Rev. Don Kimball from Santa Rosa will be the main speaker and will also present a workshop entitled "Serendipity, the unexpected joy of Christian community and how you can help build Christian Fellowship."

Minority experiences will be dealt with in two workshops: "Chicano Youth: Strangers in the Church?" by Rev. Frank Ponce of Barstow, and "Black Experience in the Catholic Church" by the San Diego Black Lay Catholic Caucus.

Rev. Garrett Short and John Short, both from Calvary Presbyterian Church, Riverside, will present "Electric Jesus" — dealing with "the day by day presence of Our Lord through film, contemporary music, slides, and recorded word."

"Scripture and stories as a means of coming closer to God" is what Rev. Russ Helfer of San Bernardino will speak on in his workshop entitled "Communing with Jesus and the use of the Imagination."

Don Wilcox

Don Wilcox accepts Campus Crusade work

Don Wilcox, a 1968 graduate of Upland High School, has accepted a full-time staff position in Berkeley with Campus Crusade for Christ, an interdenominational organization of students and lay people.

Key parts of the program, Wilcox said, are presenting the gospel to students on campus and providing a discipleship program to those who respond. Noting that many people are not responding to the gospel because they are not getting a clear presentation, he said he "takes students as they are" and teaches them to grow in their understanding of Christianity.

Wilcox, whose parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilcox, live in Upland, played football, basketball and baseball at Upland High School and attended University of California at Berkeley on a football scholarship.

All full-time staff members develop a financial support team. When Wilcox has raised the necessary support, he will begin work in Berkeley. People who wish to support his ministry can contact him at 981-1123.

Dr. Eller speaks at church

Vernard Eller, professor of religion at La Verne will be the guest speaker at the adult forum of the Diamond Bar Congregational Church at 10 a.m. on Oct. 20.

Dr. Eller will discuss his book entitled "The Simple Life" which deals with the Christian viewpoint toward possessions. He has authored numerous books including a humorous approach to theology in "Mod Morality."

Dr. Eller is an ordained minister for the Church of the Brethren.

Sunday topic at Fellowship church set

Rev. Herbert Ruthrauff, minister of visitation and counseling, will speak at the 10:45 a.m. service of the Fellowship Church of the Brethren on Sunday.

His topic is "You Are Needed."

Sunday School begins at 9:30 a.m. Steve White, interim pastor, will speak on "Evangelism" during the 6:30 p.m. evening service Sunday.

Ministers to give chapel messages

Ministers from Redlands and San Bernardino will deliver the week's chapel services at Goodwill Industries, beginning Tuesday, Oct. 29, at 8 a.m., in the Wilmet T. Smith Memorial Chapel in the Goodwill Building, 3rd and I Streets, San Bernardino.

The Rev. Paul Fitch, minister of Free Methodist Church in Redlands will bring the chapel message Tuesday.

Thursday's guest speaker will be the Reverend Gilbert A. Rushford, minister of First Church of the Nazarene in San Bernardino.

Harold Bender, operations director for Goodwill Industries of the Inland Counties, Inc. will conduct the services.

How to employ young people without overstepping the fancy rules that are handed down from Sacramento and from Washington? We're urged to give the nation's youth jobs—but you sure gotta watch your step about seeing that they don't work more than the time specified on their work permit, or that they don't work between 10:30 p.m. and 5 a.m. in the morning, or that they punch out after 8 hours even when you've got a jammed dining room and the kid wants to work extra.

When a gal gets excited about running a shop—you've got a fun person to deal with. We've got three of them in Griswold's. BRENDA GREY in the Claremont Smorgasbord gifts has built a following of steady customers for Hummel figures, Danish Christmas plates, and jewelry. MAXINE STEWART in Decor 8 is a real fan of MARIMEKKO — the smartly designed fabric from Finland that is both useful and decorative. TERRY JEFFERSON is ecstatic about all the beautiful NORITAKE stoneware which she has selected. She has a tremendous assortment of cooking gadgets and cookware in COOK'S NOOK upstairs in GOSH.

We made a wedding cake for a customer that was a 14" sheet cake bearing two hearts, one of which bore the word "Heaven" and the other "Happy Wedding." This was for a young Indian man who was returning to India to marry. His family has selected 12 girls, and he will interview each girl for one hour — and after a bit of deliberation — will select the one for his bride — yes! Something's always going on at Griswold's.

Football, Auto Injuries Can Be Very Much Alike

By DR. W. P. HELZER, D.C.

Football is one of the roughest, toughest sports and it attracts thousands of youngsters each fall. Unfortunately, the thrills it generates for spectators are often accompanied by injuries to the participants. Frankly, I'm as big a football fan as the next fellow, but my interest in the game goes beyond competition when there is an injury at the game, or the possibility that one has occurred.

Football is a vital organ such as the heart, the ears or any of the body's muscles.

It can mean permanent spinal curvature later, which shows up with startling clearness in X-ray of many patients.

While football is a fine builder of character and body, no football injury should be forgotten until after competent examination and consultation.

Too often symptoms such as headaches or digestive disturbances come later and without apparent cause as a result of an unattended neck or back injury. If the nerves are pinched and the pressure is not relieved, trouble is sure to come.

Football is part of an American tradition in education, and it is certainly here to stay. But there is always a price for good things, and the price of football is occasional injury to the players.

Every athlete should be taken to a modern Chiropractic facility before an injury is forgotten and a youth is allowed to return to the game.

Park use set for SD School site

Members of the Bonita Unified School District settled a controversy last week that has been brewing in San Dimas the past year over additional ballfields for the Little League. The board decided to permit the City of San Dimas to begin developing the condemned San Dimas Elementary School site as a park. This will include construction of an additional ballfield there for use by the Little League when the season opens in April.

The school, declared unsafe several years ago under current earthquake resistance standards, has been sought by San Dimas for a park but the district and the city couldn't agree on a price for the property. The state school officials set the price at $75,000 for the property and the city offered to purchase the land at $53,000.

"Because no one could agree on a price, a friendly condemnation suit has been started that will allow the courts to set the value," School Supt. James Johnson said.

In the meantime, he said, there is no reason why the property could not be improved.

In addition to finding another location for the overcrowded Little League program, the board's action will please residents in homes surrounding the park who have made it clear to the city that they want a park on the former school site.

The city's proposed purchase of the property was further complicated in August of 1973 when a fire destroyed the auditorium of the old school.

Dance company will entertain at MSAC

Valley residents can anticipate a rare treat in the Oct. 20 visit of the Bella Lewitzky Dance Company to Mt. San Antonio College. The public concert, climaxed by the group's three-day residency under a National Endowment for the Arts grant matched by MSAC Community Services funds, presents the noted Los Angeles group in four challenging original numbers. Described recently by the Los Angeles Times' crusty Martin Bernheimer as "a stylist who translates melody and rhythm into uncannily apt, yet unexpected movement," Miss Lewitzky and her group of youthful athlete-artists break the dance into its components — space and pattern, rhythm and pace — achieving what Bernheimer called "a limitless imagination and illusion founded on solid technical trickery." Their compositions evolve from the group, prove universal, and tell stories through dance media.

The Lewitzky Company's program includes "On the Brink of Time," "Pieta," "Orrenda," and "Kinaesonata." "Brink," a Lewitzky solo which hasn't been performed in the Los Angeles area for three years, pits space against time against energy, combining large whipping statements and cool reaches of stillness. "Pieta," one of the repertoire in which Darlene Neel's lighting is an interacting character, ponders compassion in times past and present.

The Bella Lewitzky Dance Company concert takes place in Gym 3 at Mt. San Antonio College, general admission $2, students $1. Tickets are available through MSAC Community Services, Wallichs Music City stores, and all Liberty agencies.

Soni-guide gives blind more hospital freedom

An electronic device — no larger than a pocket transistor radio — has opened the door to new worlds for blind residents at Pacific State Hospital in Pomona.

The device is a "soni-guide" and was a gift from a local General Telephone employee club. The soni-guide produces a beat that tends to make sightless, mentally handicapped residents forget their fear of the unknown when attempting tasks that once seemed impossible.

The regularly repeated tick of the soni-guide, which is similar to the beat of a metronome, also has allowed recreation therapist Roberta Stephens to expand her teaching concepts in auditory training.

According to Miss Stephens, the soni-guide has made it easier for residents to improve their spatial and tactile awareness, balance and posture, and task carry-through abilities.

"No doubt some residents have improved their coordination of voluntary movements . . . such as accuracy, balance and speed in walking . . . with the soni-guide," she said.

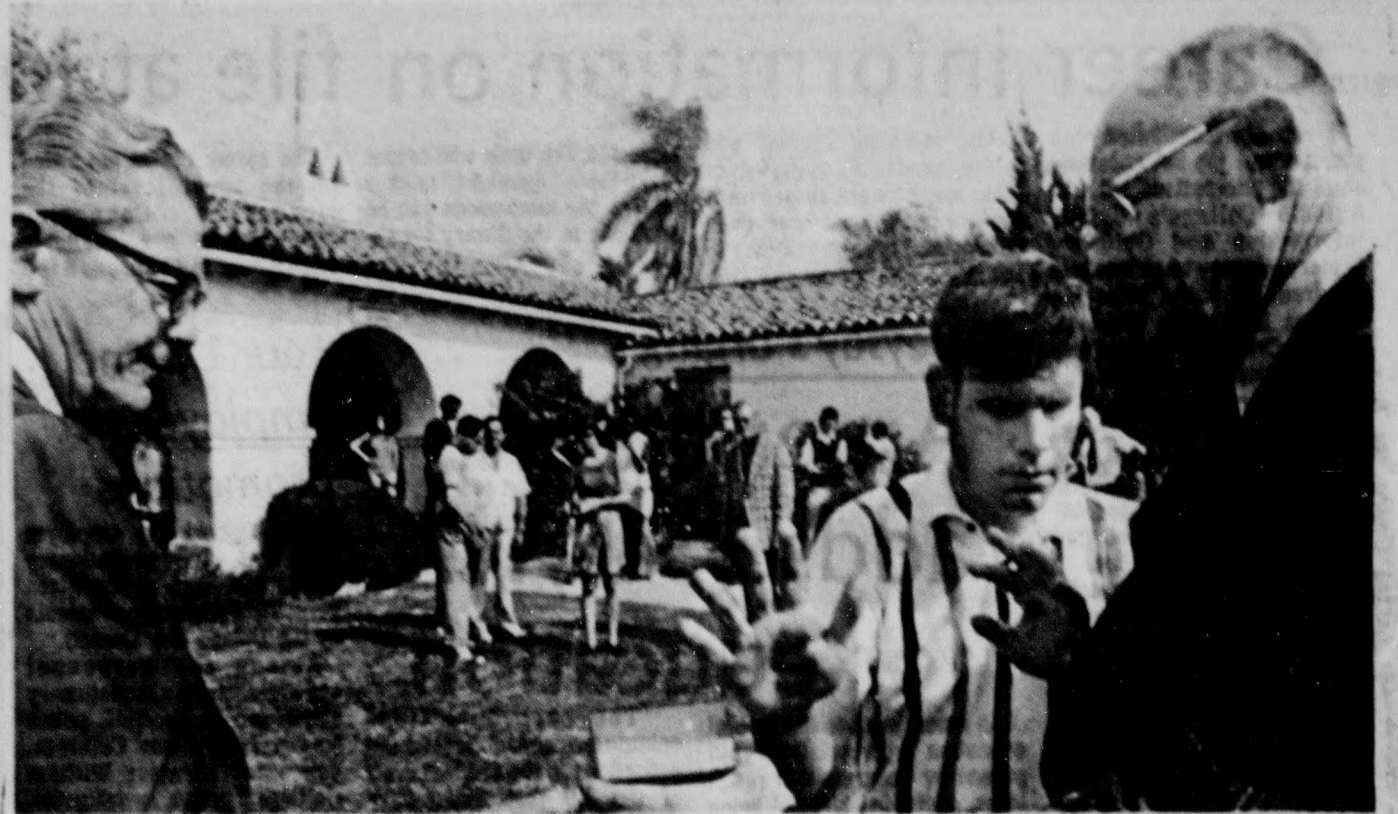

Up until now, Miss Stephens and other staff members have to rely on verbal instruction or bulkier equipment to teach residents such things as "how to walk a straight line between two points."

The soni-guide essentially is a sounding device with an extension speaker and switching systems, and produces approximately two to eight beats per second at various pitch levels. It can be used indoors or outdoors.

"The repeated beat reassures residents that someone is always nearby," said Miss Stephens.

Gene DeWeese, of Claremont, and Mel Jackson, of Pomona, both engineers at General Telephone, spent this past summer designing and producing the compact soni-guide. The presentation was made to the hospital by the Holmwood-Lorbeer Club.

The tick of a soni-guide held by Roberta Stephens, directs blind resident at Pacific State Hospital in Pomona to Gene DeWeese and Dr. William Clover, hospital director.

DeWeese helped design and produce the soni-guide which was donated to the hospital by an Independent Telephone Pioneer Association club.

Upland to leave shelter enclosed

Despite complaints about conditions of the Upland animal control facility, the outlook for any changes is nil.

Three city veterinarians told the city the facilities are "more than adequate for comfortable and healthy maintenance of the number of animals which it normally contains."

Dr. Kenneth Wilcox, Dr. V.E. Eberly and Dr. Philip G. Weida all signed a letter to the city which also stated "the level of cleanliness was found to be good to excellent. There is no need for pens to have outside exposure for the health or well-being of the animals confined therein."

The three veterinarians also observed that the two animal control officers employed fulltime by the city "are most competent and compassionate in their work. Their commitment to the welfare of the animals is unusually strong."

Mary Lucas, representing a group calling itself "concerned citizens humane committee," told the council she "challenges our three veterinarians and dubbed the facility on north Campus Avenue as 'unhealthy.'"

Acting City Manager Lee

Travers explained to the council that problems of vandalism — where children would let dogs loose — prompted the city to enclose its animal shelter.

Travers noted the rooms are heated and air conditioned with a light left on at all times. No action was taken.

City seeks annexation

The Upland City Council has adopted a resolution petitioning the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors to annex to the city a reservoir site on west Foothill Boulevard.

The property is on the south side of Foothill, west of Benson Avenue and is currently owned by the city and used for a water storage tank and well.

The Local Agency Formation Commission has already approved the proposed annexation.

An ordinance that will permit a percentage of retail sales in manufacturing zones in the city was given approval at its first reading and will be up for final action at the Oct. 21 meeting.

Career information on file at local college

If you are dissatisfied with your present job but uncertain about the alternatives, Mt. San Antonio College's Career Information and Guidance Center staff may be able to help for free. To know what the forecast is for job openings, MSAC's Career Center can also be of assistance and prescribe additional training if needed.

Open both day and evenings to better serve the needs of the members of the District, the center offers testing, individual vocation counseling and the current career information.

Although residents may make an appointment, any member of the community may drop by to browse through the pamphlets and brochures describing vocational information ranging from job outlook and projected pay scales to educational requirements which may or may not include college. In addition to the literature on hand, the career center also has on file complete descriptions of hundreds of employment possibilities on its new micro-film reader.

The center periodically presents guest speakers who discuss their particular career fields, including current and future needs. A majority of these speakers are chosen from the community so that their information is more relevant to the needs and interests of area residents.

At Veysey's urging

Amendment adds $346,117 for education

An amendment to the federal education appropriations bill passed by Congress will result in an additional $192,914 being spent in San Bernardino County for educationally disadvantaged children and $153,203 for special education programs in the county.

The amendment was introduced by Congressman Victor Veysey, the Republican nominee in the local 35th Congressional District.

The appropriations committee made substantial reductions in the original draft of the bill that would have imposed a hardship on local school districts," said Veysey, "so I introduced the amendment to increase funding in critical areas."

Veysey said the additional funds would be used mainly to pay the salaries of teachers and teaching aides in local school districts.

The career center is located on the upper level of the library. Counselor appointments are available from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 5 to 9

THE LAST GREAT GOLD RUSH IS ABOUT TO BEGIN!

After more than forty years, U.S. citizens will finally be allowed unrestricted ownership of gold as of January 1, 1975.

Clever investors have been dealing with us for years and have made lots and lots of money (and so have we, by the way) by knowing how to buy RARE GOLD COINS and hold them for capital appreciation.

While others have lost much of their money in the stock market, have watched prices rise and rise in our ever-increasing uncontrollable inflation, have seen their fixed-dollar investments deteriorate before their very eyes, our clients have done well by listening to us as we advise them which RARE GOLD COINS to buy, when to hold, and when to sell in a steadily rising market.

We have no crystal ball... no magic wand. There are no gimmicks... we do not sell "contracts", "futures", "deposit receipts", and other highly risky so-called investments.

We sell coins... rare coins... and precious metals. And you always take delivery when you make your purchase. The "Magic" if there is any, is simply to take advantage of our expertise in knowing which coins to buy, and when to sell them. And our knowledge comes from years of successful experience... it's as simple as that.

Well, not exactly. For instance our minimum investment portfolio is $5,000. We are available only by appointment. We do not deal with the general public... just the sophisticated investor and the advanced collector... people who already know how really worthless their paper dollars are and how well RARE GOLD COINS perform in highly dangerous inflationary times such as these.

Naturally we deal with our clients in strict confidence. You may pay in cash or by check. If you really understand what we have been saying in this message, we invite you to call for an appointment.
